

Watching Sense and Sensibility through Live STREAM!!!!

Dear District Staff and students ,

Tonight at 5pm and 8pm see Sense and Sensibility on YOUTUBE!!!

The Theater Department will have our 1st ever live stream!

To Watch Go to:

<https://www.youtube.com/user/DavidDouglasSD/live>

5pm performance is the understudy cast and

8pm performance is the regular cast.

-This is live streamed, not a recording so please tune in at the times above.

- NO ONE MAY RECORD THE PERFORMANCES.

Note: These are the final performances of the show!

Kate Hamill, the author, and the publisher, Dramatist Play Service, have generously given us permission to live stream the show. Thank you! Thank you also to John Bier, Derek Edens and Josh Grey for helping make these performances possible.

Please consider these performances a "pay what you will performance". We are still paying performance rights and for our set and costumes! So, if you haven't purchased a ticket, please consider supporting us. You can do that by sending a check!

Make checks out to DDHS and send to DDHS THEATER C/O Michael Givler 1001 SE 135
Portland Or 97233

Please know how sad about canceling live performances, but are excited to offer this new way to see the show!

Sincerely,

Michael Givler,

David Rosenbaum and

Roxy Mojica

P.S. Remember its live stream only at 5pm and 8 pm, AND - NO ONE MAY RECORD THE PERFORMANCES.

P.P.S. Please spread the word on social media and through email! !!

--

Michael Givler

Theatre Teacher

David Douglas High School

503-262-4438

